March 2024

Adult Events

Seed Swap

All Month

Location: Adult Department

Calling all gardening and houseplant enthusiasts! Bring in your seeds to share, swap, or donate.

Bring any seed packets that you have to swap, including opened and half-used packets, older packets, and gathered or loose seeds. Label seeds as best you can (common or scientific name, sun/shade, water, size, etc.)

Crafternoon

Saturday, March 2 | 11:00 am

Location: Adult Department

Looking for something to do during these cold winter months? Bring your own craft project to work on while mingling with other local crafters! Some craft supplies, including our sewing machine, will be available for use during Crafternoon.

Tech Help Drop-in Sessions

Tuesday, March 12 | 10:00- 11:00 am

Tuesday, March 26 | 10:00- 11:00 am

Location: Adult Department

Ready to get started with eBooks and audiobooks? Drop-in to either of these Tech Help sessions for one-on-one help using the Library's digital reading apps, Libby and Hoopla.

Crochet for Adults

Saturday, March 16 | 11:00 am

Location: Adult Department

Beginner and experienced crocheters are welcome to join our monthly crochet program!

Talking Book Demo

Saturday, March 23 | 11:00 am- 12:00 pm

Location: Adult Department

Drop-in anytime between 11:00 am and 12:00 pm to learn how to use Talking Books! Similar to audiobooks, Talking Books are published novels read aloud by voice actors for the benefit of people with vision loss. Stop in to find out if you are eligible and to sign up for this program.

Children & Teen Events

Homeschool Library Day

Wednesdays | 1:00 pm

Ages 12 & under

Our weekly homeschooling series! Join other homeschool families as we craft, build, play, and learn. Something new each week!

Uke Club

Tuesday, March 5 | 5:00 pm

Ages 8 & up

We're getting the band back together! All skill levels welcome to this entry-level program. Bring your own Uke or borrow one of ours.

The Silly Spelling Bee

Friday, March 8 | 4:30 pm

Ages 6-10

Well, it's a spelling bee, but silly! Contestants will spell words, silly words, and made-up words. (Hint: Dr. Seuss's birthday was March 3rd.) Besides the spelling, there will be games and challenges to keep the action fun! Pick up a list of sample words at the library to study before the bee!

Crochet with Flora

Saturday, March 9 | 11:00 am

Ages 7-12

Kids Teaching Kids! Crochet with Flora is a casual crochet club for kids. Beginners and experienced crafters are welcome!

Lego Robot Club

Tuesday, March 19 | 4:30 pm

Ages 7-12

We're working with Lego motors, Lego Boost, and Mindstorms to see what robots we can design!

March Madness Mario Kart and Other Games

Friday, March 29 | 4:30 pm

Ages 6-12

Board games, card games, and Mario Kart on the big screen!

Reading Challenges

Genre Challenge

cplwcho.beanstack.org

Challenge yourself to read beyond what you can imagine! Stretch your reading skills and explore new genres, or specific types of books. Expanding what you read can strengthen your reading comprehension and spark your imagination! Log your reading to earn badges.

Children, teens, and adults can all participate in the Genre Challenge, and everyone registered for this challenge will be entered into drawings to win prizes at the end of April.

Get started today on the web by visiting our Beanstack site at cplwcho.beanstack.org, or by downloading the Beanstack app to your phone or device!
